

Global Campaign on Military Spending, Newsletter 4 March 2017

Social media package

In one month GDAMS 2017 will start! We have prepared a Social Media Package to rise awareness on all the social media we have. In it is explained how to act, which mentions do and who to tag. You can download it from here

New Report by the Institute for Economics and Peace

The New report from the Institute for Economics and Peace: 'Measuring Peacebuilding Cost-Effectiveness' is now on-line.

In it the institute analyzes, quantifies and measures the cost-effectiveness of peacebuilding activities.

You can read the resume here and download the full report from here

New Infografts from GCOMS U.S.

The partners from U.S. published on his GCOMS website new infografts to share and use during the GDAMS 2017. You can download them from here

Activities for GDAMS 2017

Also for this year during the Global days of action you can take a selfie and share where you would move the military money.

You can download the file with the selfie banner “If I had $1.67 trillion, I would move the money to:” and use it during your actions.

Publish your selfie on Twitter @DemilitarizeDay , on Facebook @demilitarizeday , on Instagram @gcoms or send us your selfie mailing to: coordination@gcoms.ipb.org with the subject “Selfies Campaign”

GDAMS 2017

Another action that people can do is sign the petition on Thunderclap. In fact not everyone will be able to participate physically in the actions in these countries, but social media allows us to support and spread the campaign. Sign up to call for reducing the level of financial and intellectual resources devoted to the military!

We look forward to hearing from you soon!
