

LEADING BY EXAMPLE: ONLINE PEACE EDUCATION

Webinar Series
2020 - 2021

This webinar series consists of 12 webinars for students, youth leaders and youth peace activists, on various topics related to Human Rights, Nonviolence and Conflict Resolution, Leadership, and SDGs, presented by experts in the field of Peace Building, including Nobel Peace Laureates and Organisations.

The webinars form part of the Permanent Secretariat's Youth Program, Leading by Example, and the series is presented in partnership with the Gandhi King Foundation (India).

PERMANENT
SECRETARIAT of the
WORLD SUMMIT
of Nobel Peace Laureates

PEACE AND DISARMAMENT - CAMPAIGNING FOR PEACE & DISARMAMENT

In partnership with the International Peace Bureau

Webinar 2

Our speakers are: Binalakshmi “Bina” Nepram (left), an indigenous scholar and a woman human rights defender; Chloé Meulewaeter (centre), collaborator of the Centre Delàs of Peace Studies and a PhD student in Peace Culture; and Arielle Denis (right), former campaign Director for the International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons (ICAN) for Europe, Middle East and Africa, and consultant for for the International Peace Bureau (IPB).

The webinar will highlight key issues for peace and disarmament, as well as present and discuss campaigns and the peace movement to foster a more peaceful world. Furthermore, possibilities of engagement and personal action in the presented fields will be introduced and discussed.

Date: Monday, 23 November 2020

Time: 15:00 UTC

Register: https://event.webinarjam.com/channel/LBE_Webinar2

PERMANENT
SECRETARIAT of the
WORLD SUMMIT
of Nobel Peace Laureates

